

Chris Pak received 2014 Lifetime Achievement Award from CASNMMI

June 13, 2014 West Chester, Pennsylvania, Molecular Targeting Technologies, Inc., (MTTI) congratulates Dr. Chris Pak for receiving the prestigious 2014 Lifetime Achievement Award from the Chinese American Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging (CASNMMI, www.casnmmi.org) at the CASNMMI Annual Conference on June 9, 2014 in St. Louis, MO.

Dr. Pak is well-known for his outstanding leadership and vision in the nuclear medicine and molecular imaging field, contributions to original research and exceptional mentoring. Dr. Pak has supported the Young Scientist Award of CASNMMI by encouraging the junior physicians and scientists to submit their original findings in the Annual conference. CSNMMI presents one Lifetime Achievement Award each year to the individual who has made significant contributions to the advancement of nuclear medicine and molecular imaging, and has had positive impact on CASNMMI (Please see recent Newsletter link below).
